MUSEUMS

Route 66 Hall of Fame and Museum - The "Mother Road" comes alive with memorabilia from the glory days of Route 66. Browse through images, artifacts, and informational displays. The museum traces the history of the highway from its beginnings in 1926 to the current efforts to preserve this historic byway. Featured exhibits include the Bob Waldmire VW van and his unique Road Yacht. Take a virtual tour of the entire cross-country route by visiting the Route 66 - A Photo Journal exhibit by Michael Campanelli.

The Pontiac-Oakland Automobile Museum and Resource Center - A museum showcasing the entire history of the General Motors Pontiac car brand. Exhibits feature antique and rare Oakland and Pontiac cars, advertising memorabilia, printed materials, designer sketches, over 5,000 highway maps, a large oil can collection, and rare bits of Pontiac history.

Livingston County War Museum - A tribute to the men and women who have served in all branches of the service. A hands-on museum staffed by veterans who will guide you through the meaningful exhibits.

The Museum of the Gilding Arts - The Museum highlights the history, craft, and art of using gold, silver, and other precious and non-precious metal leaf for architecture and decoration. Exhibits includes examples of gilding, displays featuring the tools utilized in gilding, and videos demonstrating how gold leaf is produced from ingots of solid gold. A special section contains articles from the M. Swift & Sons gold leaf manufacturing plant which began operation in Hartford, CT, in the 1800s.

MURALS

Pontiac has a unique and growing collection of outdoor murals located in and around the downtown area. These murals convey the commercial, social, and political history of the city. Our "Murals On Main Street" walking tour map is available at the Visitor Center, and all museums. Be sure to bring a camera as these murals are fantastic!

JOLLY TROLLEY & TOURS

The Pontiac Jolly Trolley provides transportation for tour groups of up to 30 people. Regular history tours are available on Saturdays during the spring, summer, and fall. Private tours may be scheduled other days of the week by contacting the Pontiac Tourism office.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Pontiac has many and various connections to our 16th President. We are part of the Looking For Lincoln Coalition, and have nine wayside exhibits which tell the stories of Lincoln's visits here. We also have a beautiful life-size bronze statue of young Mr. Lincoln which stands on the Livingston County Courthouse square, and a huge outdoor mural celebrating the events of one of Lincoln's trips to Pontiac. The Jason Strevell historic house, where Lincoln spent hours in conversation with local civic leaders, still stands and is being renovated to return it to its 1860 condition.
